

The We-ta-se princess aims to empower young ladies by taking pride in their culture and provide them the opportunity to represent the Veteran community and the Prairie Band Potawatomi Nation.

Candidates must meet all eligibility requirements and submit their application before the deadline. The selection of a princess will be determined by a committee comprised of Veterans. The princess will be announced during the Annual We-Ta-Se Pow-wow.

Applications can be submitted in-person or placed at our office drop-box. Physical office address: 15434 K Road, Mayetta, KS 66509

1. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

You must be an enrolled member of Prairie Band Potawatomi Nation or a direct descendent of a Prairie Band Potawatomi Nation member.

Must live locally to participate in events at any given notice throughout the year.

You must be between eleven (11) and twenty-one (21) years of age.

You must not be married or have children.

You have never been convicted of a criminal offense or any pending charges.

You do not use or abuse alcohol or drugs, illegal or prescription, and must maintain and live a sober lifestyle.

2. CODE OF CONDUCT

Always be presentable.

Always do the right thing.
